INTRODUCTION

Dear Colleague,

The inaugural IAAGSW conference will be held in London on the 27th to 29th October.

The concept of Sexual Rejuvenation and Wellbeing is fast becoming a talking point in aesthetics and IAAGSW promises a fantastic selection of speakers to update delegates' clinical knowledge whilst also exploring new market opportunities in the dynamic Sexual Aesthetics industry.

IAAGSW will cover four key areas of Sexual Rejuvenation and Wellbeing offering delegates a complete outlook into groundbreaking treatments and identifying

We will be showcasing the most up to date treatments available in the sphere of Aesthetic Gynaecology and Sexual Wellbeing. The level of talent at IAAGSW is astonishing the indications that make up this area in aesthetics.

The four areas are; Aesthetic Gynaecology, Male Sexual Rejuvenation, Bio Identical Hormones and the rising role of Regenerative Medicine in this field. For the first time in the UK all of these topics will be discussed at the same forum, providing a unique opportunity for debate and learning.

Over the 27th and 28th there will be a full lecture programme and concurrent exhibitor workshops. The 29th will be a Masterclass for a smaller audience.

You have the opportunity to join colleagues to reinforce the science-based concept of Sexual Wellbeing and learn how to treat patients holistically. Learn how to capitalise on the rapid growth and refinement of Aesthetic Gynaecology, Sexual Wellbeing and the swiftly growing regenerative medicine technologies for both men and women, IAAGSW gives you the ideal event to network with Plastic Surgeons, Aesthetic Doctors, Gynaecologists, Urologists, Dermatologists and Nutritionists.

I look forward to seeing you at IAAGSW in October for the first Conference of its kind in the UK.

Dr Sherif El-Wakil
